

Stop the War Now!

IMPEACH BUSH FOR WAR CRIMES!

Help raise the stakes in Washington DC on January 27

Come not just to protest – but to organize the unorganized for a movement to drive George Bush from office. Join World Can't Wait in putting impeachment on the table.

After millions voted against this war in the last election, George Bush has a dramatic and risky plan to escalate and expand the conflict. Bush speaks openly about war for a generation, while torture is openly practiced in military camps.

Spreading the war to Africa and Iran, while normalizing surveillance, torture and a culture of fear – the world can't wait two more years for an election that may not even stop them. There is no way an administration that has committed war crimes should remain in office.

We don't need a new consensus: we need to drive this man out of power. We must repudiate everything Bush stands for and turn back the damage he has done. Join World Can't Wait in Washington, DC to raise the concrete, possible

Hook Up in DC

Meet: Saturday, Jan. 27

9 a.m. at 4th St. and Madison Dr.

...at the edge of the Mall, across from the National Gallery of Art east building. This is a 5-block walk down the hill from Union Station (Red line Metro stop) and about the same distance from the Smithsonian stop (Orange & Blue line).

Protest: 11 a.m. on the National Mall
March begins at 1 p.m.

goal for 2007: Impeach Bush for War Crimes!

Call now to get involved, to find out about buses to DC, and how you can help put impeachment on the table... or turn it over!

FIND hundreds of new organizers and enlist them for immediate political action across the country, including campus teach-ins and a speaking tour through February and March.

DISTRIBUTE signs and stickers saying "Impeach Bush for War Crimes" and "Drive Out the Bush Regime" along with 100,000 copies of the Call to Drive Out the Bush Regime. The problem isn't a bad war plan – it's the whole package, and that's a conversation we need to engage.

HELP form a contingent wearing orange jumpsuits to represent the detainees at Guantanamo Bay, who can now be legally tortured and denied habeas corpus under the Military Commissions Act. The message that "Torture + Silence = Complicity" needs to be part of the outpouring on Jan. 27.
